Take a few minutes with Pastor Lexy

Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." John 6:35

Greetings Beloveds!

This month, we celebrate Consecration, the time in our church year where we look back on what God has entrusted to us this last year and how we have used it, and look forward to what we have been invited to share for the year to come, declaring it for the holy work of God's love in this world together. I hope that you are able to join us for these services and meals together, and that you are able to take time in these next few weeks to reflect on your own role in the impactful ministry that you support here at Bethlehem.

Jesus' declaration that He is the bread of life can hit God's people in many different ways. These words come across differently to those starving in Gaza than they will to a Fargo family of 4 driving through McDonalds between practices. And yet, these words are for everyone. When I was a teacher, I remember learning about Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs, which laid out in a pyramid shape the needs that people have from most basic to most spiritual. The understanding is that someone whose basic needs are not met is not going to be focusing on their higher needs, or in the classroom: a kid who hasn't had supper last night or breakfast this morning is not going to care much about my music lesson today. Basic needs must also be met if we want to also feed spiritual needs.

Jesus knew this as well. His miracle of feeding the 5000 is the only story in all 4 gospels. He is constantly breaking bread with the sinners, outsiders, and the poor. He gives them the bread of life for today, as well as the bread of life for eternity. This is our ministry as well. We have the privilege of feeding bellies, spirits, and souls in our "House of Bread", and we join Jesus in this mission each and every day.

Peace be with you!

Pastor Lexy

"Land of Dreams"

by Lauraine Snelling

On a ship from Norway to America, cholera breaks out onboard, which claims many lives. A young lady who loses her mother takes on the role of nursing others who are sick. A dying mother has the captain of the ship draw up papers naming the young lady guardian of her five year old daughter and to oversee the daughter's inheritance, which is a farm and boarding house in Iowa. When they get to the farm, they find nothing was taken care of by the cousin, who was living there. The young lady and the five year old decide to return the farm and boarding house to their former purposes. Kindness of strangers and hard work make it possible. As things are improving, a trail of orphans begin to show up that need to be taken care of and fed. This is when the cousin of the former owner decides to try to take over everything and the five year old girl. A young lawyer helps the young lady by defending her in court. They win the case.

Faith, love, and determination will change their lives and their future!

Parish Planning Council Minutes
September 11, 2025

Present: Jim Sandsmark, Pastor Lexy, Brigham Drevlow, Kelly Nielsen, Shannon Brager, Dave Buen, Erik Larson, Mathew Potter, Tim Deyle, Cathy Hanson, Aimee Livdahl.
Absent: Sue Gomke, Judy Coughlin.

Executive Director Jim Sandsmark called the meeting to order. Pastor Lexy led the group in opening prayer.

A motion to accept and approve the minutes of the May 8th and August 19th meetings with no revisions was made by Erik Larson and seconded by Dave Buen. The motion carried.

Board Reports

Trust Foundation – Cathy Hanson. The last meeting of the board was in June and there was little business to be handled at that time. Over the summer, however, the board received 4 requests which will be looked at on Tuesday, Sept 16th.

Worship – Tim Deyle. The Worship Board will meet on September 18th instead of their regular meeting time due to absences. A planned topic of discussion is adding a paid position for a Worship Band director. Pastor Lexy added that attendance for the Wednesday night services have been steadily around 50-70 people. If a new director was hired, the position would likely be paid similarly to the Bell Choir and Youth Choir directors.

Property – Dave Buen. We are down to 1 party having interest in buying the lot across the street. It is unclear whether we need a contractor for the bathroom remodel. The city's answer has differed from contractors' opinions. If there are structural changes, a permit is needed. Gateway will plug/seal any gaps in the roof and tighten bolts that have loosened, but they are booked until spring, so no large updates can be done until then. It would be nice to have a designated "general contractor" to be available to answer any calls or questions about our projects. The bathroom CD at Bell Bank is up for renewal. A motion to renew the CD and add available funds raised for the bathroom remodel was made by Kelly Nielsen and seconded by Dave Buen. The motion carried.

Evangelism/Fellowship – Mathew Potter. Due to monthly outdoor gatherings this summer, BLC will not host a block party this Fall. Instead, we will have a freezer meal event on Saturday, November 15 and a food drive November 10-16. The freezer meal event will cost approximately $25 per person and everyone will take home at least 5 meals. Neighbors will be invited to participate as well so it is a low cost opportunity for them.

Stewardship – Kelly Nielsen. October 12 is Consecration Sunday. The Stewardship Board will provide the pizza meal Wednesday October 8th and a breakfast catered by VIP Catering on Sunday October 12th as a thank you to the congregation. The Temple Talk given at these services will be presented by Beth. Letters about Consecration will be sent out in the next couple weeks along with new estimate of giving cards. The board's next meeting is September 22. Dave Buen will be joining the meeting to discuss the Property Board's side of the projects that we are working on together.

Youth – Shannon Brager. It was a busy summer for the youth and Brigham Drevlow. 7 students and 2 chaperones attended Christikon Bible Camp. 9 students attended Red Willow Bible Camp. Summer youth events included Bike to DQ, Messy Games at The Neighborhood Church, and Water Games at the Neighborhood Church. Over the next couple months we will have Castaway on September 26-28, the Halloween Party on October 29 after worship, and wreath sales from October 15-November 12 (pick up November 23). Brigham will have paternity leave starting in October, which will last 30-31 days. He will receive his regular monthly salary during that time.

Parish Education – In Sue Gomke's absence, Brigham Drevlow updated the council on the Education Board's September 8th meeting. There are 23 students registered for Christian Ed. 10 PreK-1st graders are being led by Morgan Larson and Lexi Newton. 3 2nd-4th graders are led by Tom Thoreson. 10 5th-7th graders are in Brigham Drevlow's group. During Brigham's paternity leave, Sue Gomke and Erin Dahl will cover his Ed classes, and Judy Coughlin and Addison McCroskey will lead Christian Ed music. In October, 2 students will receive 3rd grade Bibles and 6 students will be confirmed. Over the summer, the storage closet was cleaned, and supplies were updated, including many gift bags from Birthday Bash Project.

Ministry – Erik Larson. The board set up their meeting for October, and discussed the budget and upcoming staff evaluations. The pastors gave their monthly reports.

Treasurer's Report – We are transitioning our accounting to ICON, which has meant many hours of work put in by Judy Coughlin. This change has meant an increase in budgeted cost for the payroll software, but it was much more manageable than expected. We will also receive free support.

Pastor's Report – Pr. Lexy Steinle gave her pastoral report. She and Brigham Drevlow attended Churchwide Assembly this summer. Kaleidoscope will be at the end of the month in New Orleans, where she will present on Narrative Budgets.

Old Business

The church's constitution needs to be updated. Pastor Amy Kippen will be our Synod constitutional helper. She will guide us through the process. She has recommended we start with the new model constitution and modify as needed.

New Business

The board budgets are due in October to present to Parish Planning. Boards that budget for a salary must get the salary increase determination from Stewardship Board. Discuss line items, and look at what has been spent on the quarterly reports from Judy. This can also be compared to the past few years of budgets, which Pr. Lexy has on file. Budgets must be finalized by Nov.

Open Discussion

Brigham Drevlow has talked with the website designer, who had delays due to a family loss. It is nearly finished, but we're giving the launch a 3 month window, so final details aren't rushed.

A motion to dismiss the meeting was made by Dave Buen and seconded by Mathew Potter. The motion carried. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. The next meeting of Parish Planning Council will be October 9th at 7:30 p.m.
